Index by First Line

Page	First Line
417	A man is walking on the moon,
215	A tourist came to Luna Base, and brought along his cat.
67	A wiggly walk, and a giggly talk
293	Ah, warrior, this is no way to sleep.
102	Ai -- ya, Diana
31	Ain't no horse that can't be rode
278	All we have of freedom, all we use or know
24	Archetuthys came to our waters,
369	Are you looking for a place to stay?
282	As I walked out of a bar in Port Richmond
158	As I was going up from town,
424	As I was out shopping, expecting no harm,
457	Attorney General Palmer's gone.
130	Baby, please don't go.
265	Babylon Five will sail no more.
332	Bad Times came and Bad Times went,
30	Better than who? The scores aren't in
312	Big empires make big enemies.
480	Big white Freightliner,
33	Blackbeard walked alone and feared
12	Blacksmith, make a sword for me
37	Blood doesn't show on black leather
341	Bold warrior of the stars, shifting sands of Mars.
430	Bring me my usual, Charles.
156	Call us outlaws. We've cut loose.
63	Carmen Miranda's ghost is haunting Space Station Three
64	Carolyn, Carolyn, where are you going,
69	Cat-woman, Sekhmet, we are one
103	Cause it's dirty fun.
173	Chasin' my shadow down Camelback Road.
73	Cheap crossbows, cheap halberds,
455	City by city, the pattern repeated:
463	Come all ye poor moon-miners,
62	Come all ye spirits of water and rain
78	Come all ye, come all ye, and enter within
35	Come ride with me darling, leave the city behind,
356	Come up, come up, oh sweet thresher-shark.
82	Consider the plight of the one-legged knight
236	Cool Johnny played like an angel.
80	Cops prowl at night, looking to steal
95	Cursed I was by the blood of my mother
94	Darling, let me in. It's only me
140	Did you think it was easy to change all of tomorrow?
378	Do you wanta be a hero in the sky?
107	Don't call my name in battle.

387 Don't look back, the thunder's rolling.
350 Drink deep, drink deep.
306 Driving late. The road is dark.
161 Dumb as dirt and twice as mean.
454 Empty street of beads of light:
123 Euphemism! Euphemism! Hide the dirty word.
125 Even a man who pays his bills and watches TV by night,
269 Even in Eden, life wasn't perfect.
386 Feel this stirring in the time-ripe world.
71 Field of night. Flowers bright.
168 Find me a sword with a pacifist's soul.
136 First ride out, Enterprise,
135 Fools, for you've lied too often.
418 Friend, what would you say if I told you.
227 From the first, the word was made
147 Get gone from me, you parasite
36 Gimme charcoal to the measure two,
148 Gimme tongue, bitch! Run it in the ditch.
464 Give, kindly Earth, this little body rest
475 Go swift to the shore and go soft down the gangplank,
150 Go-backs, going back -- but held here.
154 God bless hate. There are some things worth hating.
248 God has left hi throne. He won't pick up the phone,
263 Gods of my ancestors, guide my hands
159 Grandma was a Radical. She started as a kid.
126 Grind, children, grind,
232 Hail Thor, Lord of Thunders,
165 Hard copy, hard copy, hard copy everything that you do,
177 He comes across the floor, and he messes up the rug.
228 He was rich, he was drunk, he was horny
172 Health Nazi, son of a sow,
175 Hello! Remember us? The ones you left behind
331 Hello, NASA, How do you do?
426 Hello, old friend. Good to see you again.
51 Help me get that bully in the alley.
86 Help me, guys, unload this truck
392 Here comes the night.
376 Here comes the Soul Pimp,
8 Here I set on the head of Mount Tam.
72 Here I sit warm on the fireside mat
164 Here my voice, O Lord of Hades.
315 Here we wait at the edge of the field
302 Here's to old Queen Isabella of Spain
213 He's tired of taking orders from a hundred uniforms,
134 Hey, hey, burned away.
404 Hey, hey, what's going on here?
76 High up on the mountain of Chickasaw, they say
370 His Lordship called me away from the plow
178 Honest Rowan was a hunter,
250 How could I tell the ones I loved,
28 I am a Pagan, and proud to be.

216 I am kitten. I sleep light,
217 I am Kraken. I sleep long,
423 I am tall. I am strong. I live deep in the hill.
9 I am the angel with a sword
183 I am, I am, I am, I am, the hotel engineer.
106 I beat bottoms for a living
477 I can bite your nose clean off.
130 I can't stay in these diggings long
374 I don't care if your hair's too long.
109 I don't want your plastic world.
453 I had the walkin' pneumonia.
60 I have seen bubbles rising on the dark, silent pond
402 I hear the astronomers are raising money
260 I hear the sounds of revolution. I see the turning star.
201 I keep the peace, I guard the weak,
420 I like trashy adventure flicks,
121 I loved a girl named Ruth,
410 I only scan the papers, but I see the headlines scream.
257 I pray thee, young knight, what doest thou here
146 I read in the papers, the headlines said
422 I see them on the corners, big black bible in hand,
432 I see you cruisin' down the street,
193 I take my megavitamins by handfulls every day,
298 I tried Windows 95. Now I've got to purge my drive.
274 I try to call you, and nobody's there.
286 I waken to a rattling and a voice that thunders: "Roll!"
45 I want to get out, says Boyden the Hoyden
194 I was sitting one night with some friends in a bar,
400 I was walkin' my watchman's rounds one night
276 I went to Carolina's. I found her on her back.
284 I went to work for Welfare in hopes to help the poor.
317 I wriggle, I wriggle,
50 I'd have no complaint if Brother Christian would just stay
186 If I see her again, I must die or kill
354 If the oak is king of trees.
233 I'm a Big-Town Intellectual;
145 I'm a computer gamer, there's nothing I won't play
53 I'm a government bureaucrat
152 I'm a Holy Preacher. I got a Bible.
96 I'm a politician. I bully, tax and rob.
336 I'm tired of being beaten. I'm tired of being blamed.
185 In February, '98, We are all of Staghold Keep.
142 In the beginning, we lived in small tribes.
428 Iron Mistress, let me go.
283 Isis, Astarte, Diana, Hecate
261 It is always sourly mentioned
204 It was the Duke of Clarence, as well his coachman knew,
77 It's Christmastime in Phoenix, and we all hope for snow
90 It's getting crowded here.
458 It's so easy to be a shape-shifter these days;
118 It's the end of the world as we know it.

115 I've been out wan'dring in foggy country,
40 I've got those
184 I've simply got to tell you 'bout this brand-new love I've found.
206 Jack the Slob to Venus prayed,
429 Jesus warned you, Bhuda did too.
157 Joe got tired of the same old bullspit.
16 John F. Long was a builder
91 Just a little general hospital in a little factory town
478 Justice is not given to single folk, but classes,
214 Keylor's rage is burning for all her slaughtered kin,
287 Kwan-Yin, keeper of the East,
447 Lady and Lord of the earth and the sky
11 Lake Apopka Alligators have no balls.
23 Late this morning I heard the rifles
352 Legends have warned us in times gone by 70 Leslie Fish's ghost is haunting space station two 18 Leslie had a shotgun
234 Let me teach you to wonder and worry,
81 Like-warm julep in my hand
41 Line up, you survivors; the doctor's come to town
470 Listen and I'll tell you a tale that I've been told,
272 Listen and I'll tell you how it's done.
275 Littl girl (Little girl) you're not safe here
59 Little ET, let me explain
304 Little girl (little girl) you're not safe here.
160 Little sprites of the ancient woods use to come to the door,
324 Long must I fly (and fly, and fly)
349 Long through the dark my orbit I rolled,
310 Long, delirious, hot sow days:
153 Look out your window and what do you spy?
231 Lord Bourgeoin was a gentleman,
108 Love you, Junior, yes we do.
337 Lovecraft says to Derleth, "They're comin' from Beyond,
220 Make more than noise.
290 Mary Magdalene was a whore. She plied her trade from door to door.
44 Mary Margaret hated life;
137 Mary went out hunting in the woods of Keewenaw.
242 Master said to his men: It's time for me to go.
251 Minnie Goucher was a circus freak.
407 Mister Politician makes his money on the side.
169 Mist-god, cloud-god
256 Morning has broken, Sol's radiation
259 Mother was a Feminist. She wouldn't wait on you.
180 My father was a horse-tamer on the edge of Hali Plain
75 My first lover was a high school stud,
456 My love is mine. Among the lilies we shall dine
380 My name is George Cole, I'm a lawyer and fan.
229 My people have gone out for strange human fun.
389 Naked soul, behold: I See
311 Never marry a P.L. boy; tell you that right now.
127 No Sci-Fi cons in this town; the last hotel just turned us down.

355 Now I have seen the madness gleaming in the Serpent's Eye,
308 Oh Coral Snake, oh Coral Snake:
451 Oh Lord, I am so grateful to hear you disapprove
399 Oh Susan B., don't bother waiting up for me.
198 Oh Thou Who Art
373 Oh ye golden hills, barren gold and red,
25 Oh, do not seek to know what lies
27 Oh, have you seen the Bible Man who goes from town to town
291 Oh, I am a pirate brave and bold.
43 Oh, I could have worked on a research staff
120 Oh, Lord, Thou has made this word.
237 Oh, Matty Groves was a manly man,
327 Oh, say what ails the menfolk now, who stood so proud before?
47 Oh, the bombs went up, and the crunch came down
309 Oh, the red-headed cobra: he's hungry and brave.
117 Oh, we were born of desparate times,
264 Oh, what's the use of this looting and pillaging,
87 Oh, where are you going said Milder to Malder.
222 Oh, your live-in boyfriend's a no-good bum.
17 Old King Plague is dead
141 Old Thugger in his power, sitting in his tower,
65 Ol'Lord Korn is a sword-swingin'man
351 On my first day at war, house of Staghhold gave to me
218 Once I lived in mountains high.
2 Once I was a cheerleader
360 Once there was a ship of stone.
375 Once we feared The Beast.
131 One man in a thousand, Solomon says
279 One-spell wizard: my body can change
26 Ooh, I got tits and I gotta ass
299 Our ear-tufts are gleaming with rings of bright gold.
289 Phonix grass is lush and lazy,
101 Pile high, pile high, the Devil's underground
483 Preliminary dedication of the sacred space:
314 Red velvet, blue silk, fight it out over -- spilt milk,
397 Remember the Fifties -- those fat complacent days
219 Rhea, help me. Gaia, help me.
285 Right now we sure don't want a ware in the land where the oil-pumps grow.
322 Rise up, bright sun; bring back the days again.
122 Sad news! Sad news on the front page is spread,
144 See here, you sell a nasty book we think is full of lies.
162 See him stalking, day or night, the cities of the Bay,
320 She was looking out the window, drying dishes, crying hard,
435 Sigurd was an Odin-man,
449 Silence. No more shouting in the street.
365 Sir Brian had a battleaxe with great big knobs on.
366 Sister/lover tell me, what man ever sees you
296 Slumber, watcher, 'til the spheres
48 So I'm playing for this party and I'm cussing out my agent.
207 So long I waited, knowing you'd be back again.
189 So many years I've been here, beside this golden bay,

5 So the foeman are burning the gate
340 So why shouldn't I beat my slave?
277 So, did OJ murder his wife
338 Stay, King Damocles; make no moan.
395 Strange blood in our veins.
385 Such a little wee ship, such a little wee plane,
416 Swing into battle: it's always the same.
339 Take out and dust off your anti-war songs.
405 Teacher, teacher, do what you can
225 The blue Earth stands at our left hands
114 The Earth's fire-breathing daughter came up fro Oakland town
288 The G-Men all are cryin', and tearin' out their hair.
226 The little gray lichen that grows on the stone.
280 The neighbors who live across the hill
42 The news is known to one and all;
209 The night of fire is yet to come
414 The rain won't fall, and the land bakes dry.
119 The sear of rage is on my head,
253 The shrine had stood empty for uncounted years
61 The sky is softly overcast. The misty rain comes down
111 The summer's forgotten. The winter is long.
421 The tribble is a fuzzy beast.
474 The truth is out there.
437 The vigil of St. Gabriel, on Friday Eve it was 255 The weeds grow tall in Monument Yard
22 The wind may come in, the rain may come in 348 The World Trade Centre got a bomb that blew 3 floors away.
97 The wreckage all has vanished
262 The Yorktown was proud, She was heavy and fast,
460 There are wheels that turn through all our lives
223 There is a horny queen cat behind that door
195 There is a man come into Egypt,
212 There was a big seaman by the name of John Bray
246 There was a crusty whaler,
199 There was a fair lady who went to the War
211 There were three maids come from the west,
412 There were three old whores of Winnipeg,
427 There were two little girls in the boat one day,
167 There's atmosphere and topsoil here.
434 There's muggers on the subway, rapists on the street,
210 There've been many lovers in hist'ry,
188 They gallop from the kitchen and they settle on the grate.
444 They say that there's a broken light,
409 They were having a sale at the gun-store.
187 This is the glory of the Meat
112 This is the last vampire song,
241 Thunder now the dance of power.
367 Tiny, pale, frond unfolding,
323 Too damn many losses, scars across your heart,
38 Twas at the height of King's Town ills, Blood is blodd's avenger
468 Twelve thousand, half-million, million and more

113 Twenty thousand visitors took Atlanta on
359 Two by two, to and fro.
390 Two men walked on a beach in the sun.
368 Ua-Zit, Serpent Mother
431 Up on Otter's farm, in the misty breeze,
56 Upon the Ides of February,
266 Wake up at midnight, Cold tears on your pillow
6 We call ourselves "Blake's Seven" with pride,
415 We come marching down the street,
46 We don't like this world we've made
79 We have sailed the lightless ocean
328 We see you coming in your pork-pie hat,
428 We were 38 crewmen on Transport 18
413 We were just another army base
139 We were twenty pampered maidens under dormitory glass,
244 Weep all ye winds of the valley and hills,
329 Welcome, bold Lugh. Come, Mithra. Come bright Apollo.
15 Welcome, day so long awaited
294 We're all different, fat, thin, short or tall.
330 We're Rolling Thunder. Our memories are long.
196 We've been so many times in the slams,
318 What do we do for our freedom? Oh,
379 What do you do when you've got to choose?
129 What is courage now?
411 What manner of men are these who fly so free?
197 What's that swooping from the sky?
1 When coyotes came to get
133 When I pressed her skin to skin.
14 When I pulled old 307 out of Marsport
74 When I was a child I dreamed
304 When I was young and foolish you filled my head with lies.
406 When I woke up this morning, the cats had been fighting.
479 When it comes my time to go,
268 When we first came to the Con, The Man From Con Security
20 When we pulled into Argo Port
428 When will you turn and believe what I offer you?
155 When you boss becomes unbearable,
132 Where do you go when you throw your life away?
364 Where shall you walk tonight, my love, to cause nobody pain?
462 Where, oh where, has Cthulu gone?
398 While you're young, children, take to trades
465 White car, darting through traffic,
459 Who am I to scorn your gods,
105 Who else would roll so proudly across this blasted land?
466 Who loves enough to do the Real Thing?
116 Who told you us Eco-Freaks oppose big bucks for space?
92 Who'll be the skipper on the Delta Clipper
469 Who's that artist rocking the boat,
372 Who's the slaver in our town?
7 Why should I be a good citizen/slave
461 Word came out of the sky to our forbears long ago:

179 Worlds grow old, and suns grow cold,
382 You ask me what I feel for you;
383 You built a splendid mansion, but no tenant lived inside:
239 You can call me Michael.
334 You can't have our world anymore.
267 You don't need committees or statistics to be sure
249 You got a million reasons to do what you want to do.
270 You got me on my knees, but I've been here before.
300 You look at your daydreams, what do you see?
442 You look so good, my virgin mouse!
202 You wonder why I've left you.
128 You, pull over now and stop.
55 You're the last, best hope of the Democrats
252 You've got to know what it's like down here
