477	A man is walking on the moon,
252	A tourist came to Luna Base, and brought along his cat.
78	A wiggly walk, and a giggly talk
2	AAV-2 What can it do?
339	Ah, warrior, this is no way to sleep.
117	Ai -- ya, Diana
38	Ain't no horse that can't be rode
289	All the folks in town shopped at Johnson's General Store
323	All we have of freedom, all we use or know
31	Archetuthys came to our waters,
423	Are you looking for a place to stay?
327	As I walked out of a bar in Port Richmond
189	As I was going up from town,
484	As I was out shopping, expecting no harm,
521	Attorney General Palmer's gone.
19	Aztec, go home, the ancient chieftains said
310	Babylon Five will sail no more.
383	Bad Times came and Bad Times went,
37	Better than who? The scores aren't in
359	Big empires make big enemies.
211	Big white Freightliner,
546	Big white Freightliner,
41	Blackbeard walked alone and feared
14	Blacksmith, make a sword for me
89	Bless me, Lady Smile on Me
45	Blood doesn't show on black leather
393	Bold warrior of the stars, shifting sands of Mars.
492	Bring me my usual, Charles.
474	Cain killed Abel with a rock,
187	Call us outlaws. We've cut loose.
74	Carmen Miranda's ghost is haunting Space Station Three
75	Carolyn, Carolyn, where are you going,
80	Cat-woman, Sekhmet, we are one
119	Cause it's dirty fun.
206	Chasin' my shadow down Camelback Road.
84	Cheap crossbows, cheap halberds,
519	City by city, the pattern repeated:
528	Come all ye poor moon-miners,
73	Come all ye spirits of water and rain
91	Come all ye, come all ye, and enter within
247	Come hither my lads with your tankards of ale.
43	Come ride with me darling, leave the city behind,
408	Come up, come up, oh sweet thresher-shark.
97	Consider the plight of the one-legged knight
276	Cool Johnny played like an angel.

93	Cops prowl at night, looking to steal
111	Cursed I was by the blood of my mother
110	Darling, let me in. It's only me
170	Did you think it was easy to change all of tomorrow?
432	Do you wanta be a hero in the sky?
125	Don't call my name in battle.
442	Don't look back, the thunder's rolling.
403	Drink deep, drink deep.
353	Driving late. The road is dark.
193	Dumb as dirt and twice as mean.
518	Empty street of beads of light:
145	Euphemism! Euphemism! Hide the dirty word.
147	Even a man who pays his bills and watches TV by night,
314	Even in Eden, life wasn't perfect.
440	Feel this stirring in the time-ripe world.
82	Field of night. Flowers bright.
200	Find me a sword with a pacifist's soul.
166	First ride out, Enterprise,
163	Fools, for you've lied too often.
254	Frey Padillo rode his circuit through the Pueblo Indian towns
478	Friend, what would you say if I told you.
16	From the blacksmith's forge,
267	From the first, the word was made
178	Get gone from me, you parasite
44	Gimme charcoal to the measure two,
179	Gimme tongue, bitch! Run it in the ditch.
530	Give, kindly Earth, this little body rest
543	Go swift to the shore and go soft down the gangplank,
181	Go-backs, going back -- but held here.
185	God bless hate. There are some things worth hating.
291	God has left hi throne. He won't pick up the phone,
308	Gods of my ancestors, guide my hands
190	Grandma was a Radical. She started as a kid.
148	Grind, children, grind,
272	Hail Thor, Lord of Thunders,
197	Hard copy, hard copy, hard copy everything that you do,
210	He comes across the floor, and he messes up the rug.
268	He was rich, he was drunk, he was horny
204	Health Nazi, son of a sow,
208	Hello! Remember us? The ones you left behind
382	Hello, NASA, How do you do?
487	Hello, old friend. Good to see you again.
62	Help me get that bully in the alley.
102	Help me, guys, unload this truck
448	Here comes the night.
430	Here comes the Soul Pimp,
10	Here I set on the head of Mount Tam.
83	Here I sit warm on the fireside mat
196	Here my voice, O Lord of Hades.
365	Here we wait at the edge of the field

142	Here we watch from the edge of the field.
349	Here's to old Queen Isabella of Spain
175	Hernando Cortez, great grandee of Spain,
250	He's tired of taking orders from a hundred uniforms,
159	Hey, hey, burned away.
460	Hey, hey, what's going on here?
217	Hey, you cocky khaki boys,
88	High up on the mountain of Chickasaw, they say
424	His Lordship called me away from the plow
212	Honest Rowan was a hunter,
293	How could I tell the ones I loved,
35	I am a Pagan, and proud to be.
28	I am a voice upon the wind
253	I am kitten. I sleep light,
256	I am Kraken. I sleep long,
483	I am tall. I am strong. I live deep in the hill.
11	I am the angel with a sword
218	I am, I am, I am, I am, the hotel engineer.
124	I beat bottoms for a living
545	I can bite your nose clean off.
155	I can't stay in these diggings long
121	I didn't gripe at scientists who cloned the sheep and cat
428	I don't care if your hair's too long.
127	I don't want your plastic world.
515	I had the walkin' pneumonia.
71	I have seen bubbles rising on the dark, silent pond
458	I hear the astronomers are raising money
303	I hear the sounds of revolution. I see the turning star.
239	I keep the peace, I guard the weak,
480	I like trashy adventure flicks,
143	I loved a girl named Ruth,
467	I only scan the papers, but I see the headlines scream.
300	I pray thee, young knight, what doest thou here
177	I read in the papers, the headlines said
482	I see them on the corners, big black bible in hand,
494	I see you cruisin' down the street,
231	I take my megavitamins by handfulls every day,
344	I tried Windows 95. Now I've got to purge my drive.
319	I try to call you, and nobody's there.
332	I waken to a rattling and a voice that thunders: "Roll!"
55	I want to get out, says Boyden the Hoyden
232	I was sitting one night with some friends in a bar,
456	I was walkin' my watchman's rounds one night
321	I went to Carolina's. I found her on her back.
329	I went to work for Welfare in hopes to help the poor.
224	I will not bow down and kiss your ass,
366	I wriggle, I wriggle,
61	I'd have no complaint if Brother Christian would just stay
222	If I see her again, I must die or kill
230	If I were the rest of the world.

406	If the oak is king of trees.
53	If you go up on the Internet,
330	If you wonder why the price of stamps
273	I'm a Big-Town Intellectual;
176	I'm a computer gamer, there's nothing I won't play
64	I'm a government bureaucrat
183	I'm a Holy Preacher. I got a Bible.
112	I'm a politician. I bully, tax and rob.
388	I'm tired of being beaten. I'm tired of being blamed.
219	In February, '98, We are all of Staghold Keep.
172	In the beginning, we lived in small tribes.
517	In the eleventh month,
490	Iron Mistress, let me go.
328	Isis, Astarte, Diana, Hecate
304	It is always sourly mentioned
242	It was the Duke of Clarence, as well his coachman knew,
90	It's Christmastime in Phoenix, and we all hope for snow
106	It's getting crowded here.
446	It's no joke.
522	It's so easy to be a shape-shifter these days;
139	It's the end of the world as we know it.
135	I've been out wan'dring in foggy country,
264	I've got no dog in this fight,
49	I've got those
220	I've simply got to tell you 'bout this brand-new love I've found.
244	Jack the Slob to Venus prayed,
491	Jesus warned you, Bhuda did too.
188	Joe got tired of the same old bullspit.
22	John F. Long was a builder
107	Just a little general hospital in a little factory town
546	Justice is not given to single folk, but classes,
251	Keylor's rage is burning for all her slaughtered kin,
333	Kwan-Yin, keeper of the East,
509	Lady and Lord of the earth and the sky
13	Lake Apopka Alligators have no balls.
30	Late this morning I heard the rifles
404	Legends have warned us in times gone by
81	Leslie Fish's ghost is haunting space station two
24	Leslie had a shotgun
274	Let me teach you to wonder and worry,
96	Like-warm julep in my hand
50	Line up, you survivors; the doctor's come to town
538	Listen and I'll tell you a tale that I've been told,
317	Listen and I'll tell you how it's done.
320	Littl girl (Little girl) you're not safe here
70	Little ET, let me explain
191	Little sprites of the ancient woods use to come to the door,
374	Long must I fly (and fly, and fly)
402	Long through the dark my orbit I rolled,
357	Long, delirious, hot sow days:

184	Look out your window and what do you spy?
94	Looks like a common kitten,
271	Lord Bourgeoisin was a gentleman,
95	Lord Craigo' the White,
126	Love you, Junior, yes we do.
389	Lovecraft says to Derleth, "They're comin' from Beyond,
259	Make more than noise.
336	Mary Magdalene was a whore. She plied her trade from door to door.
54	Mary Margaret hated life;
167	Mary went out hunting in the woods of Keewenaw.
282	Master said to his men: It's time for me to go.
294	Minnie Goucher was a circus freak.
464	Mister Politician makes his money on the side.
201	Mist-god, cloud-god
299	Morning has broken, Sol's radiation
302	Mother was a Feminist. She wouldn't wait on you.
214	My father was a horse-tamer on the edge of Hali Plain
87	My first lover was a high school stud,
520	My love is mine. Among the lilies we shall dine
434	My name is George Cole, I'm a lawyer and fan.
269	My people have gone out for strange human fun.
444	Naked soul, behold: I See
358	Never marry a P.L. boy; tell you that right now.
150	No Sci-Fi cons in this town; the last hotel just turned us down.
407	Now I have seen the madness gleaming in the Serpent's Eye,
306	Oh Ali my teacher, oh Ali my friend
355	Oh Coral Snake, oh Coral Snake:
513	Oh Lord, I am so grateful to hear you disapprove
455	Oh Susan B., don't bother waiting up for me.
134	Oh the grass on the ground goes shake,
236	Oh Thou Who Art
427	Oh ye golden hills, barren gold and red,
32	Oh, do not seek to know what lies
34	Oh, have you seen the Bible Man who goes from town to town
337	Oh, I am a pirate brave and bold.
52	Oh, I could have worked on a research staff
141	Oh, Lord, Thou has made this word.
277	Oh, Matty Groves was a manly man,
377	Oh, say what ails the menfolk now, who stood so proud before?
58	Oh, the bombs went up, and the crunch came down
356	Oh, the red-headed cobra: he's hungry and brave.
138	Oh, we were born of desparate times,
309	Oh, what's the use of this looting and pillaging,
103	Oh, where are you going said Milder to Malder.
261	Oh, your live-in boyfriend's a no-good bum.
23	Old King Plague is dead
171	Old Thugger in his power, sitting in his tower,
76	Ol'Lord Korn is a sword-swingin'man
409	On my first day in camp, the Estrella War gave me.
257	Once I lived in mountains high.

3	Once I was a cheerleader
414	Once there was a ship of stone.
429	Once we feared The Beast.
156	One man in a thousand, Solomon says
324	One-spell wizard: my body can change
33	Ooh, I got tits and I gotta ass
346	Our ear-tufts are gleaming with rings of bright gold.
335	Phonix grass is lush and lazy,
118	Pile high, pile high, the Devil's underground
551	Preliminary dedication of the sacred space:
361	Red velvet, blue silk, fight it out over -- spilt milk,
453	Remember the Fifties -- those fat complacent days
258	Rhea, help me. Gaia, help me.
331	Right now we sure don't want a ware in the land where the oil-pumps grow.
372	Rise up, bright sun; bring back the days again.
132	Rise you winds from the sun-baked mountains,
144	Sad news! Sad news on the front page is spread,
174	See here, you sell a nasty book we think is full of lies.
194	See him stalking, day or night, the cities of the Bay,
160	She took off from Newark on a warm autumn day,
370	She was looking out the window, drying dishes, crying hard,
375	She was looking out the window, drying dishes, crying hard,
497	Sigurd was an Odin-man,
511	Silence. No more shouting in the street.
419	Sir Brian had a battleaxe with great big knobs on.
420	Sister/lover tell me, what man ever sees you
342	Slumber, watcher, 'til the spheres
149	So '49 was raw and rough?
59	So I'm playing for this party and I'm cussing out my agent.
245	So long I waited, knowing you'd be back again.
226	So many years I've been here, beside this golden bay,
6	So the foeman are burning the gate
392	So why shouldn't I beat my slave?
322	So, did OJ murder his wife
390	Stay, King Damocles; make no moan.
451	Strange blood in our veins.
439	Such a little wee ship, such a little wee plane,
475	Swing into battle: it's always the same.
391	Take out and dust off your anti-war songs.
461	Teacher, teacher, do what you can
8	The anarchist party roars on, loud and hearty,
265	The blue Earth stands at our left hands
122	The devil came down to Phoenix looking for faith to eat.
133	The Earth's fire-breathing daughter came up fro Oakland town
334	The G-Men all are cryin', and tearin' out their hair.
266	The little gray lichen that grows on the stone.
325	The neighbors who live across the hill
51	The news is known to one and all;
246	The night of fire is yet to come
463	The Old Gods wait

472	The rain won't fall, and the land bakes dry.
140	The sear of rage is on my head,
296	The shrine had stood empty for uncounted years
72	The sky is softly overcast. The misty rain comes down
129	The summer's forgotten. The winter is long.
481	The tribble is a fuzzy beast.
542	The truth is out there.
499	The vigil of St. Gabriel, on Friday Eve it was
298	The weeds grow tall in Monument Yard
29	The wind may come in, the rain may come in
400	The World Trade Centre got a bomb that blew 3 floors away.
113	The wreckage all has vanished
307	The Yorktown was proud, She was heavy and fast,
525	There are wheels that turn through all our lives
262	There is a horny queen cat behind that door
233	There is a man come into Egypt,
21	There was a big seaman by the name of John Bray,
286	There was a crusty whaler,
237	There was a fair lady who went to the War
249	There were three maids come from the west,
470	There were three old whores of Winnipeg,
489	There were two little girls in the boat one day,
199	There's atmosphere and topsoil here.
496	There's muggers on the subway, rapists on the street,
248	There've been many lovers in hist'ry,
225	They gallop from the kitchen and they settle on the grate.
506	They say that there's a broken light,
466	They were having a sale at the gun-store.
223	This is the glory of the Meat
130	This is the last vampire song,
345	This is the price of the future.
281	Thunder now the dance of power.
421	Tiny, pale, frond unfolding,
205	Too damn many losses, scars across year heart,
373	Too damn many losses, scars across your heart,
47	Twas at the height of King's Town ills, Blood is blodd's avenger
536	Twelve thousand, half-million, million and more
131	Twenty thousand visitors took Atlanta on
413	Two by two, to and fro.
447	Two men walked on a beach in the sun.
422	Ua-Zit, Serpent Mother
493	Up on Otter's farm, in the misty breeze,
101	Upon Diamondback Stadium a fearful curse is laid
67	Upon the Ides of February,
311	Wake up at midnight, Cold tears on your pillow
364	We ate at the Jolly Roger,
7	We call ourselves "Blake's Seven" with pride,
57	We don't like this world we've made
92	We have sailed the lightless ocean

378	We see you coming in your pork-pie hat,
490	We were 38 crewmen on Transport 18
471	We were just another army base
169	We were twenty pampered maidens under dormitory glass,
284	Weep all ye winds of the valley and hills,
379	Welcome, bold Lugh. Come, Mithra. Come bright Apollo.
20	Welcome, day so long awaited
340	We're all different, fat, thin, short or tall.
380	We're Rolling Thunder. Our memories are long.
234	We've been so many times in the slams,
368	What do we do for our freedom? Oh,
433	What do you do when you've got to choose?
153	What is courage now?
469	What manner of men are these who fly so free?
235	What's that swooping from the sky?
1	When coyotes came to get
158	When I pressed her skin to skin.
18	When I pulled old 307 out of Marsport
86	When I was a child I dreamed
351	When I was young and foolish you filled my head with lies.
